.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the Affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue a writ of Mandamus or any other writ, order or direction, declaring the action of the respondent in not issuing the regular stage carriage permit pursuant to the orders passed by the State Transport Appellate Tribunal, Hyderabad in A.P.No.271/97, dated 09.09.1997 with the timings submitted along with the application to the petitioner as arbitrary and illegal and further direct the respondent to permit the petitioner to ply his vehicle on the route in question with the timings submitted by him immediately.

Counsel for the Petitioner: SMT.M.VINOBHA DEVI

Counsel for the Respondent: GP FOR TRANSPORT

The Court made the following:

ORDER:

Smt M.Vinobha Devi, learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that in view of the interim direction granted by this Court on 17.12.1997, no further orders are required to be passed in the main writ petition, as the same became infructuous.

Recording the said submission, the writ petition is dismissed as having become infructuous. No order as to costs.
